MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY EVENTS

"Faith is taking the first step, even when you don't see the whole staircase" ~Martin Luther King, Jr.

Take the first step and make Martin Luther King Day, January 18, a day ON, not a day OFF, by joining other UD students, faculty, and staff for memorial and celebratory events.

Every year on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day a group of UD students, faculty, and staff heads out to join the city of Dayton in a memorial march and rally in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s dream for our world. The march towards downtown Dayton starts from the four corners of Dayton. UD joins the march from the south, beginning at the fairgrounds. Once in downtown Dayton, all four corners join together at Court-house Square for a rally. The rally includes singing, rejoicing, praying, and listening to guest speakers.

After the march and rally students can join students from other local universities for a free lunch and dialogue. This year the dialogue and lunch will be held in C-space downtown. Before the lunch and dialogue, students will experience Martin Luther King, Jr.'s powerful oration, "I've Been to the Mountaintop."

Please join us for this wonderful event on MLK day. We will meet at Gosiger Hall at 9:45am to make posters for the march and to warm up with hot chocolate. Campus Ministry will then provide the transportation to the fairgrounds for the march to downtown. After the march, rally, and lunch dialogue, all UD folks will be brought back to campus! No need to RSVP!

The Baptism of the Lord (Final day of the Christmas Season)

Reading I: Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11
Responsorial Psalm: 104:1b-4, 24-25, 27-30
Reading II: Titus 2:11-14, 3:4-7
Gospel: Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

*John answered them all, saying,
"I am baptizing you with water,
but one mightier than I is coming.
I am not worthy to loosen
the thongs of his sandals.
He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."
Luke 3:16*

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our

Service Program of the Week:

UD Habitat for Humanity

works in conjunction with the Dayton, Ohio Habitat on housing projects around the greater Dayton area. Members have weekly worksites on Saturdays beginning at 8am and noon and they attend a Collegiate Challenge Spring Break trip. Members have various fundraisers, monthly socials, and attend other service opportunities on and off campus.

GET INVOLVED IN SERVICE AND JUSTICE

Domestic Spring BreakOuts

Offered by the Center for Social Concern.

Looking for a great way to spend your time over spring break? BreakOut trips offer an opportunity to work with organizations and people working for change in the United States. Groups travel to Chicago, East St Louis, New Orleans, Trenton, Salyersville, Bloomington, and a Civil Rights Tour of the South. Each BreakOut, though different, focuses on issues of poverty, racism, and social injustice. Groups will learn about the issues and have an opportunity to work in solidarity for change through service and learning. Registration is on a first come, first serve basis from January 11-15. For more information, go to www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc

Can There Be Peace Between Israel and Palestine?

Tuesday, January 26, Noon, Table of Plenty,

This particular discussion is sponsored by the club Campaign Salaam-Shalom along with their advisor, Dr. Ellen Fleischmann. Table of Plenty is a chance for open dialogue with other students, faculty, and staff on current social justice issues. Lunch made and provided by the CSC staff in Liberty Hall, Room 08. RSVP to Sue Terbay at terbaysc@notes.udayton.edu.

Nominations for the 2010 Miryam Award

Center for Social Concern now accepting nominations.

This award recognizes the efforts of people on our campus to change the atmosphere and the potential for women's achievements here at the University of Dayton. Nominations may include individuals or groups of UD faculty, staff, or students. Nomination forms can be found on CSC website at www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc and are due on Friday, January 29. Questions? Contact Kelly Bohrer at 229-2516.

OpenPORCH

Wednesdays, 7pm

Join us for OpenPORCH on Wednesdays at 7pm in McGinnis Lounge to continue the More to Life, Lighthouse and Metanoia retreat experiences. It's a chance to talk about retreat topics and spend time with your families from retreat! Contact Jenna at connorjl@notes.udayton.edu.

Metanoia Retreat

January 29-31

Want more out of your UD experience?? Here is your chance to take advantage of the opportunities that our faith-filled community has to offer. Metanoia Retreat 2010 is a great way to break your weekend routine, meet new friends, and experience something unique to UD. This year's retreat will take place at the Bergamo Center. If you would like more information, contact Wes Hartig at hartigwk@gmail.com. Spots will be filled on a first come, first served basis so be sure to register soon!!

Beyond UD Panel Supper

Tuesday, January 12, 5:30-7:00pm

You're invited to join us in Liberty Hall for a simple supper with a panel of people who have recently done a year or two of voluntary service. Panelists with a wide variety of experiences—faith-based programs, government programs, U.S. and international placements—will discuss their service placements, community living situations, etc., and will spend most of the evening answering your questions! RSVP to Nick at njc@udayton.edu or 229-2576.

Eucharistic Minister Training

Wednesday, January 20, 7-8:30pm

If you'd like to serve our campus liturgies as a minister of Holy Communion, you are invited to a training session in Liberty Hall Room 08. After the session you'll have an opportunity to minister as little or often as you choose, at the Masses you attend.

No RSVP required. Questions? Contact Jeremy Helmes at Jeremy.Helmes@notes.udayton.edu or 229-3973

Chaminade Scholars Program Applications

Attention first-year students! The Chaminade Scholars Program courses, which are an approved general education cluster, are designed to help you explore your vocation in a trusting, faithful, academic community. Application materials can be found on the PCL's website, at <http://pcl.udayton.edu>. Students who are selected for the program receive a $2,000 scholarship, which supplements existing merit aid already awarded by UD. For additional questions, contact Dr. Maura Donahue, Director of the PCL at 229-4592 or stop in to HM123 and pick up a brochure! Application deadline is January 22.

Everyday Racial Interactions at UD

Thursday, January 21, 6:30 -9:00pm

Dr. Leslie Picca, Sociology, will speak about race relations and college students at the next Perspectives on Faith and Life dinner. Dinner and talk will be followed by facilitated table discussion. This is a great way to talk about important issues and to enjoy a free catered meal in an engaging environment. Session will be held in the Barrett Dining Room. Please RSVP to pfls@notes.udayton.edu by January 15. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to participate.
